Mapping The Great War

Terrain, Maps, and Failure at the Dardanelles, 1915...Professor Peter Doyle, military historian and author of Battle Story: Gallipoli 1915, will discuss the disastrous Allied campaign at Gallipoli and how planners like England's top naval administrator Winston Churchill relied upon misleading intelligence gleaned from maps.

The Maps of World War I...Ryan Moore, Cartographic Specialist in the Library of Congress Geography and Map Division and author of Maps of the First World War: An Illustrated Essay, will discuss how maps illustrate the military and political facets of the war. He will also discuss how aerial photography, scouting, and prisoner interviews were used to populate intelligence data on maps.
